

Paint Rock School

School District: 65

Teachers in 1923: E. A. Johnson, Ruth Brewster, and Grace Nichols

Trustees in 1923: W. H. Hill, W. J. Gwalthey, and J. E. Jones

Location: Paint Rock

Teachers in 1939: Mrs. Esley Flanagan, Mrs. W. D. Smith, and Mrs. Lela Mae Whitaker

Aug 8, 1889 PA: Press, Ala. "Rev. James McCloud has a good school in session at Stone's school house."

Jul 27, 1894 PA: Paint Rock column. "Prof. Ben D. Gross opened school at this place last week with a flattering prospect of a good school."

Oct 15, 1908 SC: "Prof Cooper will begin to teach the public school at Paint Rock next Monday. He will spend most every Saturday in Scottsboro to attend to his official duties as County Sup't of Education....County

ANNOUNCEMENT

Paint Rock, Ala.

The Paint Rock School will be divided into two terms. The first term to begin August 16th 1909, and continue 4½ months, closing for Christmas holidays. The second term begins January 3rd, 1910 and continues 4½ months.

An incidental fee of fifty cents will be charged for each term and must be paid on entrance. Patrons of the school are urged to send their children on the first day, for it is important in classification.

Tuition rates will be reasonable. For further information apply to J. W. Simpson, Prin. or C. M. Rousseau, Chm. Trustees

Superintendent Cooper paid out to teacher during the last scholastic year, the sum of $23,878.96.”

Paint Rock School 1939, From Reflections II

